

Sunday Showtunes

Host Jonathan Pedersen

SUNDAY SHOWTUNES is a volunteer-based community interest program created each week with the goal of bringing you some of the best of songs from on and off Broadway, live shows, film, and even television. Tune-in each week to hear a combination of nostalgia and new, classic and contemporary. The show regularly features guests from the community who stop by to share details about their projects and experiences.

SHOWTUNES, was the brainchild of former-host, actor, and entrepreneur DOUGLAS HAMBLEY, who wanted to bring to the airwaves his personal passion for Broadway musicals both the 'familiar and the obscure', doing so weekly for ten years. Douglas now has more time to be IN those shows he loves, including those at ALBANY CIVIC THEATRE and may even soon direct productions himself.

JONATHAN PEDERSEN was invited to join as host in the fall of 2014 and continues Douglas' mission having expanded the show's content and hoping to inspire his audience with tunes from both stage and screen. He has a background working with community theaters in the Willamette Valley for over fifteen years, either acting on the stage or working behind it, directing big cast musicals such as 'Chicago' and 'Annie Get Your Gun'. By day, Jonathan works as a web architect in information technology for Linn-Benton Community College.
